Are you ready for a SPOOKTACULAR getaway?

With the recent arrival of October, our decorations here at Bay Haven Inn of Cape Charles have turned a bit...spookier. We love trick-or-treaters, and if you want to join us in sharing candy with the little ghouls and goblins who show up on our front porch, then book your room for a Halloween stay at the inn! (It's also tradition to enjoy a bowl of chili on the porch while waiting for trick-or-treaters!) If you'd like a quick glimpse of one of our ghoulish guests, click here or on the image above.

We only have a couple rooms left for Halloween, so book your stay now!

Bay Haven Inn Fresh Produce and Recipes!

Gardening started out as a hobby, but now is a passion and a labor of love for Jim and me. It's so exciting to grow fresh produce and serve it to our guests. Your tastebuds will dance with delight for the cukes, melons, peppers, zucchini, and tomatoes grown on the premise.

Between our garden, Pickett's Harbor (a local farmer that gives us what they can't sell), and figs from a friend's tree, we have more than enough produce to serve, can and share. Speaking of sharing, click the button below for more info about our gardens, plus a recipe featuring our fresh-from-the-garden-produce.

The Birds Are Coming! The Birds Are Coming!

Due to the unique geographic location of Cape Charles, Virginia, the Eastern Shore provides a natural funnel effect for migrating birds in the Fall. Hawks, warblers and songbirds find their way to the Delmarva Peninsula. An average of 165 species of birds are seen each year at the Eastern Shore Birding and Wildlife Festival. Cape Charles is a rest stop for the birds as they make their four to eight week trip to the rainforests of Central and South America.
